Thank you both for sharing your time and talents with us!

“He brings the clouds to punish people, or to water his earth and show his love.” Job 37:13

As I look outside of my window when I write this, the view isn't all that vibrant. Some leaves littering a scraggly and muddy lawn. Wet concrete. Damp wood. Naked trees, awkward branches exposed, jaggedly etching a backdrop of muted gray ...

It is no wonder I am taking 5 times the recommended daily amount of Vitamin D pills to physically cope with the season. There is a certain beauty to it, but even I - a lover of seasonal variety and all sorts of harsh weather - will be the first to admit that it would be really nice to see the sun poke out every once in a while. Even just once a week, perhaps?

But that is not the season we are in. We are in the gray season, and so it may be appropriate to revisit the book of Job - the patron saint of depression and belly-achers<sup>1</sup> - during the winter. I can see God and the devil holding court again as I write this (obscured by the heavy cloudcover ... naturally): “Job only praises you because he lives in San Diego. Send him to Rittman during the winter and see if he continues to praise you with faithfulness!”

As the clouds darken the sun for most days during these months, I read this Word of God that came through one of Job's friends, Elihu. Elihu also happens to be the only one of his friends who spoke to the truth of the matter - that God's mysteries go beyond our own assumptions and reasoning. He accuses Job's other friends of condemning Job without reason, and accuses Job of justifying himself rather than God. Unfortunately, when it comes to presuming the cosmic circumstance of others is justified while justifying ourselves and our own actions when we find ourselves in a more comfortable position, we have not exactly made much progress over the past 3500 years.

I can't always tell if the weather darkens in life as to whether God is punishing us for some reason, or giving us a proper perspective so we can get really excited for the spring when the clouds break and the flowers pop out. Quite possibly it is both, and so it is probably a good thing to experience a physical season and circumstance that challenges our feelings, because it is easy to see how the attitudes of our own hearts are so frequently affected by the comfort or brutality of our environment. It is also why I appreciate that in our church calendar, we recognize our own disciplined weathering and mortification of the flesh as coinciding with this last stretch of winter arrives. This yields even greater irony this year, as domesticated people all around our nation break out totes of heart decorations to celebrate Valentine's Day while dour pastors such as myself will bring out the ashes. Since Valentine's day also happens to coincide with Ash Wednesday, we get to observe the whole picture of chapters 2 and 3 of Genesis in one day: the reason for marriage and the sin and death that endangers these relationships all at once!

Yet in all sincerity, in this coincidence we are reminded that true love does require a more ultimate perspective and the discipline needed to endure the cloudy seasons of life which bring about a more mature, sacrificial love. It is this sacrificial love that Jesus was preparing for as he spent those 40 days being tempted in the desert: the costly and priceless love that both God the Father and Jesus the Son would show us on the cross.

As I look again outside at a season that doesn't lift my spirit in the natural world, I am reminded to look at things from a greater perspective - to practice disciplines that build the endurance of my heart, strength, mind and soul so I can love both God and neighbor with a love that is not hidden by cloud cover or blown about by the winds of the seasons. A love that shows that even when our whole lives may seem but a season, God's love endures forever.<sup>2</sup>

On Sunday, January 14th, Cub Scout Pack 3405 invited the Community to share an Open House. The Pack brought in entertainer David Weyrick and Friends. There was a lot of laughs and a lot of fun to be had. If you missed it, you can find the program on Milton Presbyterian Church's YouTube page under the "Live" heading tab.

Muskingham Valley Presbytery has set the Per Capita for 2024 at $38.41.

OFFICER INSTALLATION

Help! I think it's time for a new flat roof. This is the church secretary's office and choir room. Attempted repairs over the last year has not stopped the leaks and they have escalated in the last month. There will probably be more on this later this year.

Thank you Linda Crawford and Donna Robertson for serving another 2 year term on Session.

FIRST STATED MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION: At the January 28th meeting the Board of Deacons was dissolved although people can still be ordained as a Deacon. The duties of Deacons will be carried on through congregational help. We encourage all to help with this transition especially aiding in Coffee Hours after service. During the meeting, Bill Crawford and Patty Cristino were nominated and elected to serve as Ruling Elders of the church.

Our topic for the Adult Sunday School and Tuesday Bible Study is the books of the 12 minor prophets. Please come and join us to learn more about worshipping our Lord.

In Jr. Church we are going into the season of Lent, a period of 40 days before Easter when we remember Jesus being tempted in the wilderness after his baptism, and is a time where we focus on being intentional in our relationship with God. During these seven weeks leading up to Easter, we will be learning more about covenants - a very important part of our relationship with God as a people.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC NEWS: Although we’re losing Scott Turner as our regular organist, the church will still be able to have organ music! Thank you to Neil Jackson for his time and talent as organist while he is recording the organ functions on the organ’s Midi. Scott Turner has also been recording some of his music for future use. The Midi allows the organ be played without anyone at the console. This amazing technology of the Midi actually uses the organ to play the music. Praise be to God!

The next Youth JAM will be Sunday, March 3 , 6:00 p.m. at Wayne Presbyterian Church. The group in made up of Jr. and Sr. high school students. The group meets quarterly throughout the year. The youth are encouraged to bring their friends!

Rittman Community Christmas
Baskets Chairperson

Dear Milton Presbyterian,

What a wonderful recognition by everyone. I was overwhelmed by the reception. All of the cards were very much appreciated. I hope to provide concerts in the future. They are definitely in my future plans. May the peace, love and grace of Christ fill this sanctuary.

Just for KIDS

Our first love

In Deuteronomy 10:12 (NIV), Israel is asked a question that's also for us to answer: "What does the LORD your God ask of you?"

To find the answer, write the words from the puzzle pieces on the matching shapes in the completed heart.

... your heart and with all your soul ...

Answer: " ... fear the LORD ... to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all ... "

* A JAR OF * Love and Appreciation

Sometimes we forget to show love and appreciation to people who are closest to us. Use this fun craft to let everyone in your family know how much you care.

What you need:

- Plastic jar with lid
- Heart-shaped foam pieces
- Heart-shaped stickers
- Glue
- Construction paper
- Scissors
- Pencil or crayons

What you do:

1. Decorate the jar and lid with heart-shaped foam pieces and stickers.
2. Cut out 2" or 3" heart shapes from the construction paper.
3. On each paper heart, write what you appreciate and love about your family and each member. Have all family members do this, too.
4. Place the heart messages inside the jar. Fold them in half, if necessary.
5. On each day in February, pull out one heart and read the message aloud to the family.
6. Notice the changes in your family when everyone feels loved and appreciated!
